RVP 350 VERTICAL FLEXO PRINTING

Precision Flexo for PMS Colours & More

Our 6-colour flexo printing machine (CMYK + solid + spot colors) is the perfect solution for efficient, high-quality label production. Designed specifically for narrow web materials, this model handles a wide range of substrates including self-adhesive labels, paper, and non-stretch laminated materials—ideal for roll paper from 30 to 250g.

With its environmentally friendly ink system, low operational costs, and impressive print speed, this machine delivers outstanding performance and versatility. Whether you're printing small-size labels or specialized packaging, this is your most cost-effective and reliable choice.

High efficiency, low cost, wide compatibility—your smart entry into flexo label printing starts here.

DAILY NEWS, REPORT & INSIGHTS AT THE SHOW

PROPAK EAST AFRICA 2025 IN FULL SWING ...AS ORGANISER CONFIRMS 2026 DATES

Building on the excitement of DAY 1, the energy for connection on DAY 2 was also charged up making every moment at the ongoing PROPAK East Africa 2025 exhibition and conference count. No doubt, the one-stop-shop for all things packaging, printing, food-processing and plastics in East Africa delivers on expectations hosting top brands, distributors, buyers and associations under one roof. PROPAK East Africa reports:

The same excitement also reverberated at the 3rd edition of Eastern Africa Packaging Summit tagged: Unwrapping the Future of Packaging in Eastern Africa concurrently happening along the show where industry leaders, innovators, and policymakers explored latest trends, innovations and new opportunities expected to shape packaging landscape in the region.

The overall momentum was indeed strong as insightful trade conversations and great business deals along with live product demonstrations shore up the momentum experienced throughout DAY 2 of East Africa's largest packaging, plastics, printing, food and beverage processing exhibition and conference. And driven by innovation and quest to deliver world-class packaging and allied solutions that meet diverse market needs, majority of the international exhibitors (about 70% of the total number of exhibitors this year) as well as their local counterparts, unanimously acknowledged the current 10th Anniversary edition as the best so far!

Little wonder the excited exhibitors confirmed their participation in next year's PROPAK East Africa just as
