The third and final DAY 3 of PROPAK Ghana 2024 is here and that can only mean one thing – last minutes presentations and negotiations backed by the same energy and enthusiasm of DAY 1 and 2 which saw quite a large number of quality visitors with purchasing power seeking new technologies and suppliers to beef up their manufacturing processes.

by exhibitors and this is expected to continue till the event wind up today. Investigations by PROPAK West Africa DAILY Team reveal that exhibitors were equally delighted to see the continued high-level attendees right from the start of this year's Ghana leading international exhibition and conference dedicated to packaging, food-processing, printing and plastics industries.

insightful panel sessions and masterclass-themed workshop took place as a beehive of activity as it provided not just an invaluable learning experience but also quality connections that summarily made this year's show a huge success.

With the event drawing to a close today, organisers - Afrocelt Montgomery - have announced 2025 dates for Tuesday 17 to Thursday 19 June taking place at the same Grand Arena, Accra International Conference Centre (AICC). As we look forward to the 3rd edition next year, PROPAK Ghana DAILY is again delighted

SIR PARSHOTAM AIDASANI VISITS JAY KAY STAND AT PROPAK GHANA 2024

It was an awe-inspiring experience when the Chairman of Jay Kay Industries & Investments LTD., Sir Parshotam Aidasani visited Jay Kay Stand L01 on DAY 2 of the ongoing PROPAK Ghana 2024.

Humble and down-to-earth, Sir Parshotam Aidasani is truly an epitome of meekness as he interacted with both staff and customers thereby validating one of the company's core values of respect, upholding humanness and human dignity.

This is because Jay Kay Industries & Investments LTD acknowledges that every individual brings different perspectives and capabilities to the team and that a strong team is founded on a variety of perspectives. By this, Jay Kay rightly wants individuals to dream, value differences, create and experiment in pursuit of opportunities and achieve leadership through teamwork.

Founded in the harbor city of Accra-Ghana, Jay Kay Group is a celebrated name when it comes to anything and everything related to paper and paper related products. For over 20 years, Jay Kay Industries & Investments LTD has been committed to providing excellent product and services to Paper & Printing Industry across Ghana and West Africa.

WHAT ARE YOUR THOUGHTS ON (AND EXPECTATIONS FROM) THIS YEAR'S PROPAK GHANA 2024?

Right from the opening of the doors of Grand Arena, Accra International Conference Centre, the excitement of participants was palpable throughout the ever-busy show floor. PROPAK Ghana DAILY Crew met with a number of exhibitors to know their thoughts (and expectations). Find these out in excerpt below:

"We are already exporting into Ghana and our purpose for exhibiting at Propak Ghana is to expand our reach and to find more customers" according to Corruseal - Julian Moodie and Paul Malan. PROPAK Ghana DAILY gathers that as a wholistic packaging company, Corruseal believes in supporting customers not only with innovative, fit-for-purpose products but also with advice, support services, and even partnerships that can improve efficiencies in their packing, storage and logistics processes. Corruseal is indeed leader in the South African paper and packaging industry, focusing on supplying innovative, fit-for-purpose, sustainable solutions and allied services.

Johannesburg, South Africa based Safrique International was established in 1996 as an Export Trading Company and an Exclusive Distribution Agent for Local & International Manufacturers for cost-saving solutions from Virgin to Reprocessed Plastic Polymers as well various Additives and Solvents and Recycled and Packaging machineries. Safrique International is representing the following companies at PROPAK Ghana this year: Quantum Polymers, Global Plastics, Performance Colour Systems, Windmoller & Holscher and Nordmeccanica Group. Feedback from members of the group has been positive, from both returning companies, as well as first timers.

As one of South Africa's top packaging systems design and manufacturing companies, Filmatic Packaging Systems supplies packaging equipment solutions that can accommodate packaging of all types of glass and plastic bottles, sachets, tubs, cups and literally most conceivable containers and closures. According to Filmatic's Oscar Radyn, having their single head pump filler operating on show is catching people's attention and drawing onto the stand. Filmatic have a good client base in Ghana and hope to meet some new clients at this show.

Founded in 1949, CAM has been the first Italian designer of automatic machines for packaging into cartons. Throughout the years, CAM range of machines has expanded and CAM can now supply complete packaging lines for all industrial sectors including Pharmaceutical, Cosmetic and Food. At present, CAM trade mark represents a structure involving 14 Manufacturing Companies, 19 Trade Centers with Agents distributed in 27 countries and 15 After Sales Centers to provide technical assistance throughout the world. At CAM stand during this year's show, Christian and Emmanuel were delighted to be back in Ghana for the 2nd edition of PROPAK Ghana, and are hoping that it going to be a good show for them again.

"THANK YOU AND SEE YOU IN 2025"

After a very busy second day, PROPAC Ghana organiser - Afrocet Montgomery hosted exhibitors to a special Thank You Cocktail Function in the Conference Arena - set in a tranquil, cool music ambience to relax nerves and to specially express gratitude to them for having confidence in their ability to host yet another successful international exhibition and conference in Ghana.

While participants reminisced on the last two days of the premier show, the function was an opportunity for the exhibitors to start planning ahead of time for PROPAC Ghana 2025 whose dates 17 to 19 June were recently announced by Afrocet Montgomery. PROPAC Ghana DAILY Team was there to capture memorable images:

“WE DO TURN-KEY QUALITY BAKERY PRODUCTION LINES THAT ARE INTEGRATED FROM SILO TO TRUCK”

MR. ROY JANSEN, SALES MANAGER - ROYAL KAAK

In a world in which craftsmanship and skills are key; customer requirements change and standards become ever higher; Royal Kaak is constantly developing new products and services in this world as an international leader in stand-alone machines and complete bakery lines for 175 years – from silo to truck. PROPAK Ghana 2024 DAILY Team caught up with its Royal Kaak Sales Manager - Mr. Roy Jansen on what makes the company tick and why it decided to come to Ghana. Find out in excerpt below:

All orders and deals are negotiated individually according to the customer's requirement.

WHAT ADVICE WILL YOU GIVE TO A POTENTIAL CUSTOMER SEEKING THE BEST PRODUCT, SERVICE DELIVERY, AND VALUE FOR MONEY?

We advise and recommend (that) in ordering a complete production line; that one supplier is selected to avoid interface challenges.

HOW CAN YOUR CURRENT AND POTENTIAL CUSTOMERS CONNECT WITH YOU BOTH PHYSICALLY (IN THE COUNTRY) AND ONLINE AFTER THE SHOW?

We respond promptly to all forms of contact be it telephonically or by email. You can get in touch with me via +31611279913 or rojansen@kaak.com

WHAT ASSURANCE ARE YOU GIVING TO YOUR CUSTOMERS (DURING AND AFTER THE SHOW) TO GUARANTEE YOUR COMMITMENT TO THEIR NEEDS ANYTIME, ANYDAY?

We assure customers of our unwavering commitment through proper and open communication of our quality products and services. Our dedicated support (made up of) sales and technical teams ensure quick problem resolution and peace of mind with our comprehensive guarantee.

WELCOME TO GHANA; WHAT ARE YOUR EXPECTATIONS AT THIS YEAR'S PROPAK GHANA?

Thank you; it is our first attendance at an exhibition in Ghana and we are hoping to meet potential investors and baking/ milling customers.

WHAT IS YOUR THOUGHT ON THE POTENTIALS OF GHANA AS A DESTINATION OF CHOICE FOR BUSINESSES IN AFRICA?

Ghana is an ideal investor destination with opportunities to develop the baking industry with progressive and automated baking solutions.

WHAT ARE THE CHALLENGES YOU FORESEE IN DOING BUSINESS IN GHANA AND HOW BEST TO DEAL WITH THEM?

The challenge we may face is in establishing and introducing ourselves to the new clients. We know it takes time to build relationship but we're here for the long run with integrity.

WHICH PRODUCTS OR SERVICES ARE YOU OFFERING TO THE MARKET AND WHY ARE THEY DIFFERENT FROM COMPETITION?

We do turn-key quality bakery production lines that are integrated from Silo to truck that are made to last longer.

ARE THERE SPECIALS, PROMOS OR DISCOUNTS THAT YOU'RE OFFERING TO YOUR CLIENTS AT THIS YEAR'S SHOW?

TELL US ABOUT YOUR COMPANY?

Royal Kaak is a Dutch company that is setting the standard in the design, manufacture, and installation of high-capacity bread production lines since 1846. As the international leader in stand-alone machines and complete bakery lines for 175 years – from silo to truck, we understand that no two bakeries are the same and customers' requirements also change; that is why we are constantly developing products and services tailored to market need (and often ahead of it), while always putting the interests of our customers first. We have all the technologies available in-house, which means that every bakery can turn to Royal Kaak for machines and production lines in all conceivable sizes, designs and capacities.
